

San Diego Brewers Guild

The San Diego Brewers Guild is a California non profit corporation established to educate the public of the benefits of fresh local breweries located in the area of San community events to raise funds for awareness of locally available freshly Guild has two active classes of which include the micro breweries who Real Ale Festival and are shown on this who consume or appreciate the value of and wish to support the local brewing regarding membership, contact David @ Camino Real, #207, Carlsbad, CA mailing list! The Guild hopes you will available freshly brewed beer available Brewer Members. Cheers!

beer, promote the interests of Diego County, participate in charities and increase public brewed beer. Currently the membership: Brewer Members, participated in the May 1999 map and Supporting Members freshly and locally brewed beer community. For information avvocato.pacbell.net, 7700 El 92009 or get on the SDBG try the wide variety of locally at the above locations of its